The image shows the interior of a cafe. A long, dark wood bar with a black metal frame runs along a white, textured wall. Several black metal bar stools with wooden seats are tucked under the bar. The wall is decorated with several black, cylindrical pendant lights and two black, industrial-style wall sconces with brass-colored shades. On the bar, there are small potted plants, a stuffed monkey, and a menu. In the background, a service counter and a menu board are visible. The floor is a light-colored, polished concrete.
